Comments:

Looking forward to enhancing the elegance and beauty of Harp Music for you!

Thank you for visiting Daniel Hooke, Harpist Exhibitor Booth!

Additional Varied Items at the Harp In Worship Conference:

Please see the danielhookemusic.com website so that I can offer you more new items which hopefully you will find nice to enhancing the elegance and beauty of Harp Music for you.

- (1) JUST PUBLISHED Sheet Music and Recording: “My joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full ... If you keep My commandments” for Harp. It uses some non-traditional harmonies. This piece is a musical expression of the Scripture title “My joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full ... If you keep My commandments”. This piece is also available as a Duet or Ensemble to make it easier.

- (2) Please see “Psalm 122 Festive Response” Sheet Music and also the Recording. It involves harp and shofar (ram’s horn) in a Bible sounding responsive reading with instrumental and singing responses. The Recording uses an F Horn instead a shofar so see the Score to understand what is happening with the shofar.
- (3) Not really new unless you missed it: The Document “A Case For Art Music To Be The Core Of The Church Music Program” contains an examination of David’s music program in the Bible which holy harpists may well find interesting.
- (4) New Document: “Confidence And Encouragement For The Non-Virtuoso Harpist”. Hang in there!
