Instant Sunday School – A Ten Year Verse-By-Verse Trip Through The Bible

Blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it.
Luke 11:28

Introduction Comments

This Bible Study is called “Instant” because it requires very little preparation time for a person to lead this group study. All of the work is already done for you. Thus, it is an easy Bible Study to present.

This Bible Study goes through the Bible verse-by-verse alternating from time to time between the Testaments. The document you are reading contains a list that divides the Bible into lessons and further divides the Bible into readings within each lesson.

You do not have to stay completely on schedule. This will mean that you will finish the total study in a longer period of time. If you do not maintain the ten year schedule, the list of lessons will help you see where you are in the plan.

An individual can do this Bible Study on his own and at a speed faster than a group study. An individual can do the Bible Study without even being a member of a group.

Thus, one way to complete this Bible Study in less than ten years is to do the Bible Study on your own as an individual. You can do the study on your own at a faster pace than the ten year group study while at the same time being a member of a group that is doing the ten year Bible Study. The Bible which is God’s Word is so rich and wise that you stand to gain from both studies.

“Instant Sunday School – A Ten Year Verse-By-Verse Trip Through The Bible” can be used on an individual basis for growth for Sunday School class leaders and workers who are working during Sunday School time and can not go to an adult Sunday School class for their own personal growth.

When designing and presenting the original variation of this Bible Study, the writer of the document that you are now reading did wide reading and used many principles such as using the book of Hebrews to help make Christian sense out of the book of Leviticus; looking at exercises to better get the feel of Bible life; looking for large patterns; watching for confusers; showing conflicts, approaches, logic, resolutions, transitions, etc. However, it was noticed in the wide reading that The Ryrie Study Bible New American Standard Translation notes and the Zondervan Bible Publisher’s NIV Study Bible New International Version notes will help you get a good basic understanding of the Bible. Thus, this “Instant” Sunday School Bible Study can be done if the class leader has these two reference books. Hopefully many or all members of the study group will also obtain these reference books.

Substitutes for the class leader can easily follow the same “Instant” procedure. To make it even more “Instant” for a substitute, the class leader can make a written lesson plan for the substitute that puts a list of the class leader’s comments with each Scripture passage in the lesson and the substitute will have to do no preparation. Of course, the substitute can also make his own comments.

Make up work for a class member being absent, late, or leaving class early can be done by that member reading the notes in the two Study Bibles used for this class. If a person joins the Bible Study at a later date than the beginning, that person may make up all missed lessons at the beginning of the Bible Study if desired in this same manner.

Seek new class members by putting short comments about your Bible Study in Church publications and bulletins. Also, simply ask people face-to-face to join you in the group for study if they would be interested. Consider having class parties for class members, spouses, and friends in which you should try to help everyone present have good time. Someone may come to the party who would otherwise feel uncomfortable attending a study class; however, if they find that they can be comfortable with the people in the study group at a party, they may be moved to attend to study group itself.

If appropriate, a partial circle makes a good seating arrangement with the class leader up front seated at a small table. All class members will be facing each other. In a larger class there can be a partial second row behind the circle.

As a part of class procedure, make an effort to not let one class member dominate the discussion. Keep the discussion orderly as Paul teaches in the Bible and allow time for each to make a discussion contribution if desired. Deal with problems in Christ.

Take no shortcuts! Read ALL of the Scripture verses in class or the integrity of this method design will be lost and you will miss the most significant part of the lesson.

Materials Needed:

- The class leader, of course, needs a Bible. Class members bring their Bibles.
 - Comments:
 - It is suggested to use the King James Version for class because it is quoted heavy in literature. Give up to date dictionary definitions of unusual words.
 - There are also modern translations of the Bible in today’s understandable language.
 - There can be translations of the Bible that are more concerned with a doctrine or a fad than with original texts.
- The Ryrie Study Bible New American Standard Translation and the Zondervan Bible Publisher’s NIV Study Bible New International Version are needed at least for the class leader.

- Comment:
 - Some Study Bibles may have comments that are not in concert with Bible teachings.
- “Is The Cross Of Jesus Christ Central To Human History?” is material necessary to the design of this Bible Study method. All class members should have and read “Is The Cross Of Jesus Christ Central To Human History?” for being aware of some basic Bible issues including interpretation issues. For instance, the New Testament part of the Bible does some interpreting of the Old Testament part of the Bible in a special way. “Is The Cross Of Jesus Christ Central To Human History?” can be obtained on the website danielhookemusic.com where you got the document you are now reading.
 - Comment:
 - Also note that from time to time there can come about scholarly proposals or fads that seem to make the Bible easier to believe but are not in total agreement with the Bible. In reality, these ideas end up weakening people’s Bible based faith and end up pulling people away from the Bible that God uses to help us.
- Optional Materials:
 - Suggest an “An Easy Bible Reading Plan” for class member’s daily Bible reading and tell them where to get it on the website danielhookemusic.com where you got the document you are now reading.
 - Each member can obtain a copy of “Instant Sunday School – A Ten Year Verse-By-Verse Trip Through The Bible” if they desire.

Preparation for presenting a lesson:

- Read the Bible verses from where the class left off the last session through at least the next full lesson. The list of lessons in the document you are now reading is divided into lessons so that you know about how much to have ready each class.
- For each Bible passage episode grouping of verses in the list of lessons in this document that you are reading, read the study notes from NIV and Ryrie and list points and observations that you find of interest.
- Seek the guidance of God and Christ.

Lesson Plan for a class:

- Speak to people - - anyone who shows up. If possible, do this before class starts. All class members should develop this interest in “created in God’s image” people. Learn the names of new-comers and the correct spelling. Introduce them to the class. Go around the room and have class members tell them their names.
- Check roll, etc. and other business.
- Start on time! Make efficient use of time. Don’t waste time.
- Consider singing one or two verses from a hymn for an opening which is something Bible Christian groups did. Buy a standard set of hymn books if you do this singing. Don’t use illegal copied music!
- Consider this option. Buy a book some kind of Bible “trivia” (the Bible is not “trivia”) questions and have someone select one or two questions to read each class period. Buy some “religious” pencils, book marks, etc. at a Christian religious book store and give one as soon as you have a winner in the class. Be liberal with the prizes and give more than one person a prize if two or more seem to answer the question at the same time. Thus, you should have with you enough prizes to give everyone a prize on a rare occasion. These items for prizes are very inexpensive.

- Start the proceedings with a prayer.
- Read aloud the next Bible passage episode grouping of verses in the list of lessons in this document that you are reading.
 - Instead of you the leader reading the Bible passage under consideration, you can use a tape recording. Also, you can go around the room and let class members do the reading aloud as the other class members follow along in their Bibles. The person reading reads as much as he desires to read and then the next person reads if desired. If there is a hard word to pronounce in the passage, let it be known that you can just say “big word” since all are following along in their Bibles and can see the word. If the class leader is doing the reading aloud, he can feel comfortable in just saying “big word” also. It may well be the case that the class is more comfortable with the class leader being responsible for reading the Bible passage or using a tape.
 - In class read the Bible reading under consideration. Don't assume that it has been read by all class members. The Bible reading is half of the lesson. This is the way the Bible's Ezra taught in the Bible.
 - Before beginning a new book in the Bible, take a moment to make a few very brief introductory comments about the book and perhaps mention a key verse in the book or a few key verses. Likewise, after you have finished a book in the Bible, make a few very brief summary comments.
- Make your comments of points, observations, and things that you find of interest on the passage just read.
- Stop for class member's comments.
- As time permits continue this process by going to the next Bible reading and reading it aloud, making comments, and stopping for class member's comments.
- Stop the class session on time in respect of other people's schedules and commitments.
- End the class with prayer.
- Thank people for coming and any comments they made. If someone just attends the class, they have made a contribution to the class because if no one goes to the trouble of coming, there will be no class.

This “Instant” Bible Study will help class members get to know what the Bible really says. One reason we need to know what the Bible really says is so that we can know if we ourselves are in Biblical error or if others sources are in Biblical error. In seeing what the Bible really says, may we be convinced of the Christ, grow in the Christ, and be convinced that obeying the Bible is helpful.

“Blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it.”
